Report - Women's Cell & Internal Complaint Committee (ICC)

2018 - 2019

The Committee executed its work as follows –

As per the guideline about the formation of Internal Complaint Committee (ICC) given by Maharashtra State Commission for Women, Mumbai, Women's Cell & ICC was composed on 03.07.2018 in Shri. D. M. Burungale Science and Arts College, Shegaon when regular theory and practical classes started in the academic session 2018 – 2019.

Efforts were taken by the committee members for the comfort of the girl students by providing a safe vehicle parking maintaining the cleanliness of the campus etc.

The Principal Dr. R. E. Khadsan addressed the students of B.Sc. I year on 16.07.2018 to make them acquainted with the college and its rules. He stressed the importance of discipline, punctuality and hard work to acquire good grade in the University Semester Examination. The whole college premises are under observation of CCTV cameras by the Principal.

A complaint/ suggestion box has been fixed near the Microbiology Department to collect girls' grievances. The Women's Cell & ICC circulated the notice for girl students to drop their suggestions, grievances in suggestion box. During this session the box was open five times in the months of August, September, October, January and March. Most common complaints received were about the maintenance of girl's common room and about the refill of sanitary napkins in Machine.

All complaints were conveyed to Principal and with the help of nonteaching staff complaints were resolved.

Due to vigilance of the committee members together with all the staff members, the atmosphere as well as extra-curricular activities were carried out in a peaceful atmosphere in the college. There was no complaint of sexual harassment among the students and staff till the end of the year.

Report on Anti-Ragging Committee

Introduction:

The issue of ragging is a serious concern in our college and it has adverse effects on the physical and mental health of the victims. To prevent such incidents, our institute has established anti-ragging committees. In this report, we will discuss the functioning and effectiveness of the Anti-Ragging Committee at our college.

Composition and Functioning:

The Anti-Ragging Committee at our college consists of the Principal, two faculty members, two non-teaching staff members, and two student representatives. The committee's primary objective is to prevent ragging on campus and to take appropriate action against those who engage in such activities.

The committee meets at regular intervals to review the implementation of anti-ragging measures and to take necessary steps to prevent ragging. The committee also conducts awareness campaigns and training sessions for students, faculty, and staff members to sensitize them about the consequences of ragging.

Effectiveness:

The Anti-Ragging Committee at our college has been successful in preventing ragging incidents on campus. The committee has taken various measures, including the installation of CCTV cameras, increased patrolling by security personnel, and the formation of vigilance squads to keep a watch on any suspicious activities.

The committee has also been successful in creating awareness among students about the consequences of ragging through awareness campaigns and training sessions. Students are encouraged to report any incidents of ragging to the committee, and the committee takes immediate action to address the issue.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, the Anti-Ragging Committee at our college has been successful in preventing ragging incidents on campus. The committee's composition, functioning, and effectiveness have helped to create a safe and conducive environment for learning. The committee's efforts in creating awareness about the consequences of ragging have helped to sensitize students, faculty, and staff members about the importance of preventing such incidents. It is essential to continue the efforts of the committee to prevent ragging and to create a safe and secure campus environment.

No. F. 1-127/2011 (Anti Ragging)

PUBLIC NOTICE

CURBING THE MENACE OF RAGGING IN HIGHER EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

It is brought to the notice of the Institutions, students and other various stakeholders that ragging is a criminal offence and UGC has framed regulations, on curbing the menace of ragging in higher educational institution, in order to prohibit, prevent and eliminate the scourge of ragging. The regulations have been notified vide No. F. 1-16/2009 (CPP-II) dated 21.10.2009 and are available on UGC website www.ugc.ac.in.

The above mentioned regulations are mandatory and shall apply to all Universities established or incorporated by or under a Central Act, a Provincial Act or a State/Union Territory Act and all Institutions recognized by or affiliated to such

Universities and all Institutions deemed to be Universities under Section (3) of the UGC Act, 1956 with effect from 4th July, 2009 i.e. the date of its Publication in the official Gazette. All institutions are required to take necessary steps for its implementation in toto including the monitoring mechanism as per provisions provided in the above regulation and ensure its strict compliance. The following preventive measures for

Anti-Ragging should also be strictly followed:-

- 1) The Institutions may erect suitable hoardings/bill boards/banners in prominent places within the campus to exhort the students to prevent or not to indulge in ragging and also indicating therein the names of the officials and their telephone numbers to be contacted in case of ragging.
- 2) All Educational Institutions should form an Anti-Ragging-Committee and squads and dedicated cadre of wardens and professional counselors to ensure that the directions of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and Justice Raghavan Committee recommendations are followed without exception.
- 3) An affidavit must be obtained from every Student, Parent/Guardian separately as per clause (m & n) of Regulation 6.2.
- 4) The Institution may also undertake other forms of campaign as it may consider appropriate for prevention of ragging.
- 5) UGC has uploaded a film on anti-ragging on its website. All universities and colleges are requested to download the same and give wide publicity amongst the students, before the start of the academic session. Besides, this may be constantly monitored during the entire period of the academic session.

Any violation of UGC regulations as cited above or if any Institution fails to take adequate steps to prevent ragging or act in accordance with these regulations or fails to punish perpetrators of incidents of ragging suitably, UGC shall call for punitive action against erring institutions.

Students in distress owing to ragging related incidents can access the toll free helpline 1800-180-5522

D.O. No. F. 1-15/2009(ARC) pt-III

8th August, 2016

Sub: Curbing the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions.

Dear Sir/Madam,

In pursuance to the Judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India dated 8.5.2009 in Civil Appeal No. 887/2009, the UGC notified "Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009". The Regulations are available on the UGC website i.e. www.ugc.ac.in.

Any violation of these regulations will be viewed seriously. If any institution fails to take adequate steps to prevent ragging or does not act in accordance with these Regulations or fails to punish perpetrators of incidents of ragging suitably, it will attract punitive action against itself by the UGC.

You are requested to step up anti-ragging mechanism by way of adequate publicity through various mediums; constitution of anti-ragging committee and anti ragging squad, setting up of Anti Ragging Cell, installing CCTV cameras at vital points, Anti- Ragging workshops, updating all websites with nodal officers complete details, alarm bells etc. Regular interaction and counseling with the students, identification of trouble-triggers, mention of Anti-ragging warning in the institution's prospectus and information booklets/brochures shall be ensured. Surprise inspection of hostels, students accommodation, canteens, rest cum recreational rooms, toilets, bus-stands and any other measure which would augur well in preventing/quelling ragging and any uncalled for behavior/incident shall be undertaken.

Students in distress due to ragging related incidents can call the National Anti-ragging Helpline 1800-180-5522 (24x7 Toll Free) or e-mail the Anti-Ragging Helpline at helpline@antiragging.in. For any other information regarding ragging, please visit the UGC website i.e. www.ugc.ac.in & www.antiragging.in and contact UGC monitoring agency i.e. AmanSatyaKachroo Trust on following No. 09871170303, 09818400116 (only in case of emergency).

You are requested to hold the workshops, seminar on eradication of ragging in higher educational institutions and are requested to display Anti Ragging posters at all prominent places like Admission Centre, Departments, Library, Canteen, Hostel, Common facilities etc. The size of posters should be 8X6 feet.

You are requested to get your institution accredited by NAAC/NBA and submit the compliance report and implement the special Drive on anti-Ragging prevention programme

You are requested to immediately instruct all the colleges under your purview to submit online compliance of anti-ragging Regulations on curbing the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions, 2009 at www.antiragging.in

In compliance of the 2nd Amendment in UGC Regulations, you are requested to make it compulsory for each student and every parent to submit an online undertaking every academic year at www.antiragging.in & www.amanmovement.org

UGC has notified the 3rd Amendment in UGC Regulations on 29th June, 2016 to expand the definition of ragging by including the following:-

3. (j) Any act of physical or mental abuse (including bullying and exclusion) targeted at another student (fresher or otherwise) on the ground of colour, race, religion, caste, ethnicity, gender (including transgender), sexual orientation, appearance, nationality, regional origins, linguistic identity, place of birth, place of residence or economic background.

This Circular may also be brought to the notice of colleges affiliated to your esteemed University.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Jaspal S. Sandhu)
